Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., November 16, 1893.

Now that the Harvard-Yale game is scarcely more than a week off, we can see some order coming out of the chaos of the early part of the season when "star" succeeded "star," and "find" followed "find" in wearying succession. As the season approaches a close this much may be truthfully said of the Harvard players: They have worked hard and faithfully. From the day that Capt. Waters issued his call for candidates last spring, until the present the candidates last spring, until the present is not candidates last spring, until the present with the representatives at Rio have decided at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship. The landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship. The landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship. The landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship.

War for Rio Janeiro can be landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship. The landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship. The landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship. The landed at Santos, Yesterday insurgents dressed ship.

The Brazilian government forts fired a national salute in honor of the anniversary of the establishment of the republic."

This information is regarded at the Navy Department as an indication that the insurgents dressed ship in honor of the statement that the insurgents dressed ship in honor of the anniversary of the republic is totally in honor of the anniversary of the republic is totally inconsistent with the report that they have declared for "Emperor d'Eu" unless the crafty admiral is playing a double game.

The interpretation put on Capt. Picking's telegram in official circles is that the naval representatives at Rio have declared. F. Arabin. ISM 33d sta.w.; and the statement that the insurgents dressed ship in honor of the statement that the insurgents dressed ship.

The brazilian government forts fired a national salute in honor of the anniversary of the republic."

IT CRIPPLES MELLO

The Recent Action of the Powers an Insurgent Setback.

Prevents the Closing of the Port at turbed-Mello's Position.

A cipher dispatch was received at the Navy Department yesterday from Capt. Picking, commanding the United States Picking, commanding the United States fleet at Rio de Janeiro, which tends to throw a glamor of doubt and disbellef in the bombastic report from Madrid that Admiral Mello has proclaimed Count d'Eu Emperor of Brazil. Capt. Picking's dispatch is as follows:

"Naval representatives of eight nations, including our nation, have decided not to permit munitions of war to be landed at Rio. Santos being still in possession of the Brazilian government and connected with Rio Janeiro by railway, munitions of with Rio Janeiro by railway, munitions of war for Rio Janeiro can be landed at San-time ago that there should be no firing between the forces at Rio and the insurgents in the bay.

This was violated on one occasion, although little, if any, damage resulted. Yesterday's dispatches indicated that the naval officers on duty there in the protection of foreign interests are determined this agreement shall be enforced, for this last notice is the result of concerted action on the part of the allied powers to prevent any firing upon the city and damage to commerce by either side. The restrictions thus imposed as to the landing of munitions of war treats both sides allke, but the advantage is with the ex-

There is a much "easier" feeling about Cambridge now that the New Haven players have actually been scored against. The spell of the Yale name is broken. That long period of constant victory, unmarred by a single point scored by an opponent, has at last been forced to give way.
